- The Match of the Week in round 2 features two teams that both won their season opener in group A last week.
- Bietigheim eased past DHK Banik Most in an away game (46:23) for the German side's biggest ever win in the EHF Champions League Women; FTC defeated Danish champions Odense Håndbold 27:23 at home.
- Bietigheim play their fifth CL season; FTC their 23rd.
- FTC won four of the previous six duels between the teams, including two of the three away games in Germany.
- Bietigheim stretched their winning streak across four competitions to 59 matches on Wednesday, when they outscored Waiblingen 44:23 in the German league.
- In their previous CL season, in 2020/21, Bietigheim won just one of their 16 matches – but that was a remarkable 11-goal away win at FTC (35:24).
- Last season, Bietigheim lifted the EHF European League trophy after winning all 12 matches.

- New team captain Xenia Smits was named MVP of the EHF Finals 2022 in Viborg, where Bietigheim became the first German club in nearly 30 years to win Europe's second-tier women's club competition.

- FTC were CL quarter-finalists four times since 2016, but have so far failed to qualify for the EHF FINAL4.

- Last season, FTC lost in the play-offs to Krim.

- Bietigheim's Hungarian goalkeeper Melinda Szikora played for FTC in the past (2013-19) and won the Cup Winners' Cup with the Hungarian side in 2015.

- Bietigheim's Dutch line player Danick Snelder, who will miss the MOTW, is also a former FTC player.

- On the other hand, FTC's Dutch right wing Angela Malestein previously played for Bietigheim (2014-20).

- FTC's two German players, Emily Bölk and Alicia Stolle, have not played for Bietigheim in the past; they both arrived in Hungary in 2020 from Thüringer HC.

- FTC signed Serbian duo Andrea Lekic and Dragana Cvijic, French Olympic, world and EHF EURO champion Beatrice Edwige, and Hungarian defender Zsuzsanna Tomori for this season; Bietigheim's most notable newcomer was Spanish international Kaba Gassama.

- Bietigheim coach Markus Gaugisch is also in charge of the German national team; FTC's Gábor Elek was Hungary's national team coach until August 2021.

- Injury report – Bietigheim: Danick Snelder (knee); FTC: Anikó Kovacsics (maternity leave), Blanka Bíró (knee).
