- while the hosts are second ranked in group B with eight points, Brest are on six points and did not win their last three matches (draws against Győr and Buducnost, defeat against CSKA)

- Odense have won their last eight international home matches including two victories in the current CL season and six wins in the EHF Cup 2019/20 season, when they reached the semi-finals

- Odense count on the best defence in group B (118 goals against) and the second best attack (150 goals) below Győr (165)

- Brest's Danish born goalkeeper and Denmark's number 1 Sandra Toft will return home, she played for Esbjerg before - and will face Althea Reinhardt, Denmark's second goalkeeper

- Brest count on two more Scandinavian players: Norwegian left back Tonje Loseth and Swedish playmaker Isabelle Gullden, the record score of any CL final with 15 goals for CSM vs Győr in 2015

- in 2016, Gullden was MVP and top scorer of the Women's EHF EURO 2014, when she took the bronze medal with Sweden

- two former Odense players joined French clubs before this season - but none of them transferred to Brest: Natalie Hagman went to Nantes, Nadia Offendal joined Paris

- two Dutch 2019 World Champions are part of Odense's squad: goalkeeper and All-star team member Tess Wester and left back Lois Abbingh, the top scorer of the tournament, who arrived from Rostov; former Dutch international Nycke Groot (MVP of the EHF FINAL4 in 2014) plays for Odense

- both teams qualified once for the CL quarter-finals: Odense in the 2018/19 season, Brest one season later, when the knockout stage was cancelled due to Covid-19

- Brest were only defeated by CSKA so far, while Odense lost their only match against defending champions Győr

- before the 2019/20 season was stopped, Brest's right back Ana Gros was third best scorer by 78 goals; currently the Slovenian even tops the ranking with 34 goals, an average of 6.8 per match

- with 21 goals, Groot is Odense's currently best scorer, one goal ahead of Freja Cohrt Kyndboel

- both coaches were/are still national team coaches of non-European teams: Laurent Bezeau (Brest) coached Tunisia, Ulrik Kirkely (Odense) is also at a helm of the Japanese national team for the 2021 Olympic Games in Tokyo. Previously, Kirkely was coach of the Bahrain and Saudi men's national teams

- with the one-season break for the Tunisian team (2012/13), Bezeau is coach at Brest since 2009, Kirkely arrived at Odense this summer, replacing former Danish national team coach Jan Pytlick; Kirkely had coached Odense already from 2015 to 2017

- three non-European players are part of the squads: Japanese Ikehara Ayaka and Brazilian Jessica Quintino for Odense, Fofana Namizata from Mali for Brest
