- Vipers Kristiansand and Rostov-Don play their DELO EHF Champions League quarter-final as a double-header this weekend, with both matches taking place in Russia.
- The second leg is on Sunday 11 April at 14:00 CEST.
- Vipers edged Odense Håndbold 65:62 in the play-offs after losing the first leg at home; Rostov had two clear victories over HC Podravka Vegeta and won 71:44.
- Rostov have won all previous matches against Vipers.
- Vipers and Rostov last met on 10 February 2021 - in Erd, Hungary, where the Russian side won 24:23.
- Vipers played at the EHF FINAL4 once - in 2019, when they finished third; that same year Rostov played their first final, which they lost to Győr.
- Rostov had finished fourth the previous year (2018).
- Two Vipers players were CL top scorer in the past: Heidi Løke in 2010/11 (99 goals for Larvik) and Linn Jorum Sulland in 2018/19 (89 goals for Vipers).
