- Only two points are separating CSKA and Vipers Kristiansand in DELO EHF Champions League group B ahead of the Match of the Week in round 10.
- CSKA are ranked fourth with 10 points from nine matches; Vipers are second with 12 points.
- Last week, CSKA just failed to win their first CL match after the winter break, drawing 27:27 with Odense Håndbold in a match where they let slip a 27:25 lead in the closing minutes.
- The good news for CSKA, however, was the return of centre back Darya Dmitrieva, who had been taking a break from the sport since the Tokyo Olympics.
- Vipers are on a four-match winning streak after they beat IK Sävehof 42:23 in a Scandinavian derby last week.
- CSKA have failed to win their last two home matches in the CL, losing to Odense and drawing with Krim Mercator Ljubljana; they had won their first two.

- Vipers lost their first two away matches this CL season but have won the next three.
- Both teams played against other for the first time in the semi-final of the DELO EHF FINAL4 in May 2021, when Vipers took a 33:30 win.
- The Norwegian side went on to win the CL title by beating Brest Bretagne Handball 34:28 in the final.
- CSKA made it all the way to the DELO EHF FINAL4 last season as CL debutants.
- The teams met again in the group phase earlier this season, when CSKA won 27:24 in Kristiansand.
- CL 2020/21 top scorer Ana Gros played the CL final with Brest against Vipers, before the Slovenian back joined CSKA in the summer of 2021.
- Vipers stars Katrine Lunde and Nora Mørk won gold with Norway at the World Championship 2021; Heindahl won bronze with Denmark.
- Mørk is the leading CL scorer this season with 68 goals; Gros has netted the most for CSKA: 42 goals.
- Gros and Vipers centre back Isabelle Gulldén were teammates at Brest for three seasons (2018-21).
- Seven CSKA players were part of the Russian national team that won silver at the Tokyo Olympics last year; Nora Mørk and Katrine Lunde won bronze with Norway, after they had lost to Russia in the semi-final.
- Injury report: CSKA – Polina Vedekhina (recovering from surgery); Vipers Kristiansand – n/a.
